MISSIO Scotland

Our Mission To Spread the Gospel

The growth of the Church in mission areas depends on the supply of priests and religious. The purpose of the Society of Saint Peter the Apostle is to promote the formation of indigenous clergy and religious.

It does this in two ways:

- Providing annual subsidies to contribute to the maintenance of the students.
- Constructing, enlarging and refurbishing seminaries.

Indian sisters run the Church's many schools

Who are we?

MISSIO Scotland is the Scottish branch of the Pontifical Mission Societies, the Papal mission charities based in Rome.

We administer these charities to allow Scottish Catholics to play their part in supporting the Church's mission effort.

Africa's young are best led by African priests.

Who is involved?

Parishes, schools, lay organizations and even individuals take on the task of sponsoring students in Mission areas. They undertake to make an annual payment of £550 for each student they sponsor.

Playing our Part

Catholics throughout the world join together through the Society to contribute to the training of students in their own countries.

Priests and religious who need specialized training abroad are also sponsored by the Society. Priests attending courses in Rome or superior Institutes in Africa receive scholarships and can find accommodation in colleges administered by the Society.
