

Visiting A Nigerian Village.

Hello, my name is James. Welcome to my village. This is my house. I'm sweeping up while my Mum is working at her shop.

This is Mum's shop. It's made of old tyres. She sells fruit at the roadside. Baby brother is there too.

My Dad has gone into the city to find work. He is a carpenter. There is no bus. People get a lift on a lorry.

These are my friends. We use this cart to carry goods from the market for people. We can earn some money to help the family.

Abdala brings things to sell from Benin. His camel is Esmiralda.

This is my sister Hope in school. Her Teacher is Mr. Yakubu.

Lifting Children Out Of Poverty

We are doing our best to help each other climb out of poverty. Thank you for lending us your hands to help. Your money has helped us to get;

- ~ An Education - we are learning to read.
- ~ Clean Water - we are healthier now.
- ~ Good Food - we are growing stronger.
- ~ Clinics - we can see a doctor when sick.
- ~ Medicines - we can get better quicker.
- ~ Homes - the orphans are cared for.
- ~ Closer to God - we are helped to make our first Communion.
- ~ Friends - you are our real friends because you give to us without wanting anything in return.

Thank you for being
